When the Twenty-first was ordered to the front the beautiful flag was re-turned to the Wheeler family in North Stonington for safe keeping. As time went on the Dudley Wheeler family passed away, and the flag was among the unlisted effects of the state. John B. Brown, who was very much interested in procuring the flag in the early days of the civil war and who was a days of the civil war, and who was a member of the company to which the flag was presented, began an investiga-tion, and after much difficulty located the flog and by persistent effort finally secured possession of it about two years ago. The flag was placed in the custody of the Westerly Memorial and Library association, and there it re-mained until Monday morning. Mr. Brown and his associates of Co.

G, the few still living, decided that the proper place for the flag was with the Wheeler school, and Washington's birthday was decided upon as a fitting time for the presentation. Mr. Brown told of the history of the flag and what it represented, when making the pres-entation, and suggested that, inasmuch entation, and suggested that, inasmuch as the material had been affected by age, that the flag be carefully folded, appropriately labelled, placed in a glass case, securely locked, and the key thrown away. He wanted the flag to last as long as possible and therefore advised that it be so placed that it will never be disturbed.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 23 .- William Sulzer today instituted legal proceedings before Justice Alden Chester of the supreme court with the purpose of regaining the governorship from which he was removed last October. An order was issued by the cour commanding Comptroller Sohmer to appear and show cause why a writ of mandamus, compalling him. of mandamus, compelling him to pay the former governor his full salary as the occupant of that office, should not be issued. Mr. Sulzer previously had made a written demand on Mr. Sohmer for his salary.

Sohmer for his salary.

When Attorney General Carmody notified Justice Chester that he would oppose the granting of the writ, the court said he intended to refuse it as a matter of law, holding that the court of impeachment already had passed on the contentions of Mr. Suizer. on the contentions of Mr. Sulzer.

An agreement then was made between the attorney general and Colonel Alexander S. Bacon, counsel for Mr. Sulzer, to facilitate the determination of the questions involved by the state courts. The appellate division will be asked to affirm Justice Chester's proposed order denying the granting of the writ and then the case will be carried to the court of appeals where a similar request will be made.
